

Notice of Rule Change Concise Explanatory Statement Transportation of liquor through the state

This explanatory statement concerns the Washington State Liquor Control Board's repeal of the rule regarding transportation of liquor through the state.

The Administrative Procedure Act (RCW 34.05.325(6)) requires agencies to complete a concise explanatory statement before filing adopted rules with the Office of the Code Reviser. This statement must be provided to anyone who gave comment about the proposed rule making.

Once persons who gave comment during this rule making have had a chance to receive this document, the Liquor Control Board will file the amended rule with the Office of the Code Reviser. This rule change will become effective 31 days after filing (approximately September 13, 2008).

The Liquor Control Board appreciates your involvement in this rule making process. If you have any questions, please contact Rules Coordinator, at (360) 664-1648 or e-mail at rules@liq.wa.gov.

What are the agency's reasons for revising this rule?

As part of the Liquor Control Board's on-going rules review process, the rule regarding the transportation of liquor through the state was reviewed for relevance, clarity, and accuracy. This rule does not represent the Liquor Control Board's current practice.

What changes are being made?

The current rule, WAC 314-48-010, does not represent the current practice of the Liquor Control Board and is repealed. Staff is not aware of any issues involving the transport of liquor through the state destined for locations outside the state that require clarification in a rule.

Rule Adoption

The Board adopted this rule change on August 6, 2008. Repeal of this rule will be filed on August 13, 2008 and will be effective September 13, 2008.
